Dr. Sherman W. Wing, assistant superintendent of Provo School District for the past seven years, Saturday night was named to succeed Dr. J. C. Moffitt as district superintendent, effective July 1. The action came in a special meeting of the Provo Board of Education.

Dr. Wing, 50 years old, has been associated with the school district for 25 years as a teacher, counselor, assistant high school principal, junior high school principal and assistant district superintendent.

He was chosen from a group of nine applicants for the position, five of whom were interviewed in the past week. The board declined to reveal who the other applicants were but said that all were highly qualified individuals.

In making the announcement Saturday night, Mrs. Shirley Paxman, president of the board, said "we have given this matter a lot of thought and consideration but have reached a unanimous decision in selecting Dr. Wing."

"We want to express at the same time, our deep appreciation to Supt. Moffitt for the devoted service he has given," she said.

Dr. Wing called to the meeting after the selection was made following an earlier executive session of the board said: "I want to express sincere thanks for the confidence you have placed in me and
